

I have XM satellite radio. I support them in there effort to stop The National Association of Broadcasters from taking away the weather and traffic and other valuable information. Don't let the NAB take away my freedom of choice of radio satellite.